Furthermore, at least one additional member of the Committee must have expertise in the area of accounting or auditing.

Section 2
Tasks

- (1) Notwithstanding any assignment by law or administrative order, the Committee has the tasks which are set out in these Terms of Reference.

The Committee Chairperson is to inform all Committee members of the information obtained.

- (2) The provisions applicable to the Supervisory Board also apply to the convocation and taking of the minutes of the Committee's meetings, to participation and attendance, to forming a quorum, to the ways in which resolutions are taken and to the reports to the Supervisory Board except that these apply to the members of the Committee instead of the Supervisory Board members and to the Committee Chairperson instead of the Supervisory Board Chairperson.
- (3) In cases where there is an equal division of votes and a second round of voting on the same matter also leads to a tied vote, then the Committee Chairperson has two votes.

Section 4 Participation in meetings

- (1) The Chief Financial Officer, the Management Board member responsible for Compliance and Anti-Money Laundering, the Head of Group Audit and the auditor attend the meetings of the Committee, unless the Committee Chairperson specifies otherwise from case to case.

- (3) The Committee supports the Supervisory Board in monitoring the independence, qualification and efficiency of the auditor as well as the rotation of the members of the audit team. To check the auditor's independence, the Committee, before submitting the proposal to the Supervisory Board pursuant to sub-section 1, obtains a declaration by the intended auditor on whether there are professional, financial or other relations between the audit firm, its management bodies and chief auditors, on the one hand, and the bank and the members of its management bodies, on the other, that could give reason to doubt the independence of the auditor, and if so, which. The declaration should also state the scale on which other services were rendered to the bank,

It is agreed with the auditor
