and is inclusive of the Early Tender Payment, which is equal to $30 per $1,000 principal amount of Notes validly tendered at or prior to the Early Tender Time and accepted for purchase by Deutsche Bank (the “Early Tender Payment”). The Full Tender Offer Consideration will be determined by taking into account the par call date for each series of Notes.

The terms and conditions of the Tender Offer are described in the Offer to Purchase.

Holders must validly tender and not properly withdraw their Notes at or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on 10 August 2022, unless extended by Deutsche Bank (such date and time with respect to the Tender Offer, as the same may be extended, the “Early Tender Time”), in order to be eligible to receive the Full Tender Offer Consideration, which includes the Early Tender Payment. Holders that validly tender their Notes after the Early Tender Time and at or prior to the Tender Expiration Time will not be eligible to receive the Early Tender Payment and will only be eligible to receive the Late Tender Offer Consideration. The price determination time for the Tender Offer will be 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on 11 August 2022, unless extended by Deutsche Bank. In each case, Holders that validly tender Notes that are accepted for purchase by Deutsche Bank will receive accrued and unpaid interest from, and including, the last interest payment date to, but not including, the Settlement Date (defined below), in each case rounded to the nearest cent. Notes validly tendered may be withdrawn at any time on or prior to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on 10 August 2022, unless extended by Deutsche Bank, but not thereafter.

All Notes tendered prior to or at the Early Tender Time will be accepted based on the Acceptance Priority Levels noted above, with 1 being the highest Acceptance Priority Level and 4 being the lowest Acceptance Priority Level. Acceptance of Notes is also subject to proration if the validly tendered principal amount exceeds the Tender Cap. See “Acceptance Priority Levels and Proration” in the Offer to Purchase for more details. Further, if the Tender Cap is exceeded by the Early Tender Time, Deutsche Bank will not accept for purchase any Notes tendered after the Early Tender Time.

The Tender Offer will expire at 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on 24 August 2022, unless extended or earlier terminated by Deutsche Bank (such date and time with respect to the Tender Offer, as the same may be extended or earlier terminated, the “Tender Expiration Time”). Following the Early Tender Time and prior to the Tender Expiration Time, Deutsche Bank may, but is not obligated to, with respect to the Tender Offer, elect to accept the Notes validly tendered at or prior to the Early Tender Time, provided that all conditions to the Tender Offer have been satisfied or waived by Deutsche Bank, and settle such Notes at such time or promptly thereafter (such date of settlement with respect to the Tender Offer, the “Early Settlement Date”). The Early Settlement Date is expected to be 15 August 2022. The “Final Settlement Date” with respect to the Tender Offer is the date that Deutsche Bank settles all Notes not previously settled on the Early Settlement Date, if any, and Deutsche Bank expects such date to be two business days following the Tender Expiration Time. The Final Settlement Date is expected to be 26 August 2022. Deutsche Bank refers to each of the Early Settlement Date and the Final Settlement Date as a “Settlement Date.” Each Settlement Date is subject to change without notice.
